

Hand-dug test-pits looking for Mesolithic (middle stone age) flint tools (c.6000BCE) (Area G)

Bronze Age 'barbed & tanged' arrowhead (c.2000BCE) (Area H)

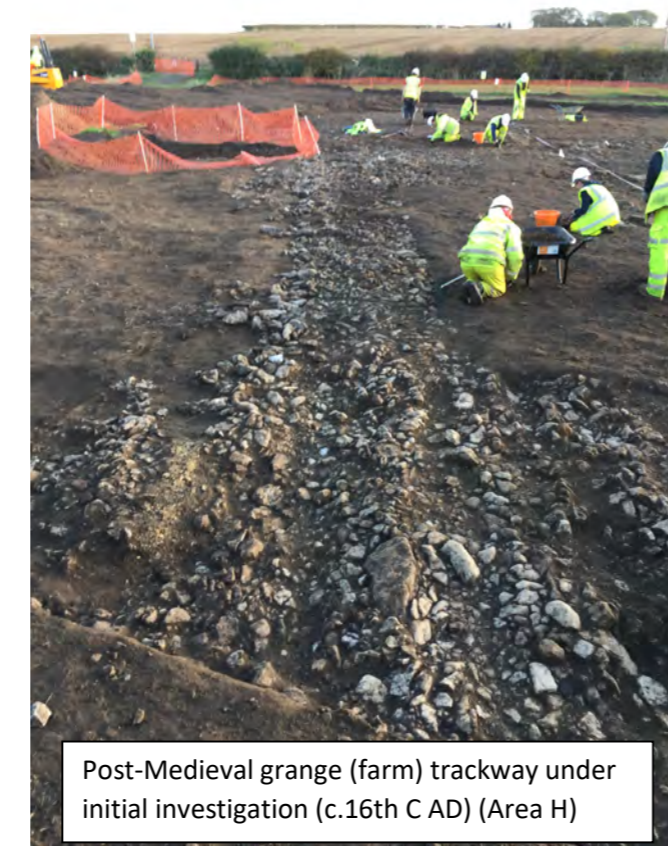

Medieval stone beacon/defensive tower and enclosure under investigation (c.12C AD) (Area G)

Detail of Medieval stone beacon/defensive tower and enclosure under investigation (c.12C AD) (Area G)

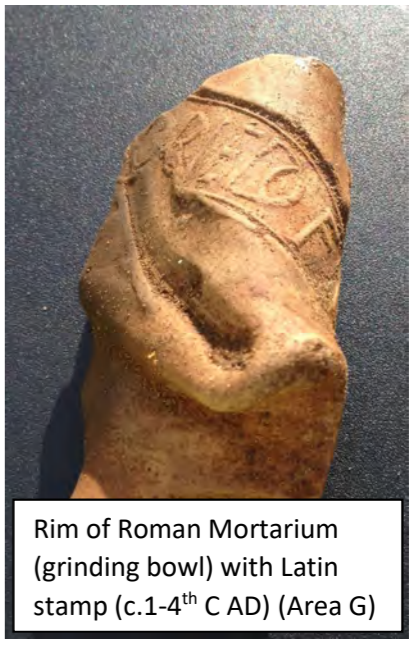

Post-Medieval grange (farm) walls/rubble under initial investigation (c.16th C AD) (Area H)

Post-Medieval grange (farm) trackway under initial investigation (c.16th C AD) (Area H)

Late Medieval well relating to grange (farm) under initial investigation (c.15th C AD) (Area H)

Rim of Roman Mortarium (grinding bowl) with Latin stamp (c.1-4th C AD) (Area G)

Medieval stone: 'fleur-de-lys' carving (c.13th C AD) (Area H)

LINCOLN EASTERN BYPASS
ARCHAEOLOGICAL WORKS – AREAS G AND H
WORK-IN-PROGRESS AND SELECTED ARTEFACTS
(Progress Meeting 04/11/16)

Medieval carved bone tool (?apple or bone marrow corer) (c.13-16th C AD) (from well in Area H)